Legal representation, advice and counseling

This program provides legal services to older adults in need. This includes full representation through individual casework as well as information and referral. Attorneys will work with consumers at the MetroWest Legal Services office, a local Council on Aging (COA), the consumer’s home, and/or by phone. If you are calling on behalf of an older adult, please be sure to request the Springwell Senior Citizens Legal Project when speaking with the Intake Worker.

MetroWest Legal Services also offers legal advice at Legal Clinics held at several COAs in the Springwell service area. Consumers should call their COA directly for the latest information.
